

How to Find Route Schedules

Option 1

Step 1

Type in any bus route or bus stop number.

Add two zeros before a single-digit bus route number and one zero before a double-digit bus route number.
